Description

Normally when there are some advanced rule options specified on a rule, the little "a" sign is displayed in the left column and hovering over it shows a short-hand version of what advanced rule options are set.

If any of the following advanced options are set, they are not included in that hover text:

- a) Operating System "os"
- b) Diff Server Code Point "dscp"
- c) 'nopfsync'
- d) 'vlanprio' and 'vlanprioaset' (802.11p options)
- e) 'ackqueue' and 'defaultqueue'

After adding 'nopfsync' the other option 'nosync' will be a bit ambiguous - so make that hover text 'No XMLRPC Sync'.
