- Status changed from New to Not a Bug

- Affected Version deleted (2.3)

that's what happens when you have compatibility mode enabled in IE, disable it.

Thanks for the quick reply.

Compatibility mode is disabled on the screenshots above.

If I enable it, things will be different, but still bad:

IE 8 is otherwise fundamentally broken in that case. IE 8's end of support is 2 weeks away, you shouldn't be using it anymore.
