Description

I upgraded from 2.3-RC to 2.3-RELEASE.

System Version

Current Base System 2.3

Latest Base System 2.3

If I go to the system update settings page and select the branch dropdown I see two options.

1. Follow 2.3 snapshots and move automatically to -RELEASE (Default)
2. Keep following 2.3 development snapshots

Neither of these seem correct.

there's still inconsistency here. Some correctly show Stable and Development there, some on latest 2.3.1 even show as described here.
