Description

I wanted to grant a group/user the privilege to view (and administer) the integrated switch of a XG-7100 but couldn't find a related privilege in the list. I also tried granting all the privileges of the category "interface" but the "Switches" menu didn't appear under "Interfaces".

I assume this privilege is not selectable or it's named weird so I'd appreciate hints as well. :)

The pages already contain the necessary metadata, it just hadn't been pulled into the privilege files. Should be an easy fix.
